CONDITIONS OF WARRANTY CONSIDERATION

Any and all warranty work to be performed must be approved and authorized by Ox Trailers Warranty department prior to commencing work and/or accruing charges.

Defective components must be sent to Ox Trailers within 30 days of claim. When freight costs might be excessive, photos may be sent in lieu of actual component if damage/defect can be clearly identified, at the discretion of the Ox Trailers warranty administrator.

All warranties, extended to Ox Trailers by the supplier of any component used in the manufacture of trailer will be assigned, if contractually permitted, to the purchaser. In no event will Ox Trailers extend a warranty for a component beyond the period that is provided by the manufacturer of the component in question. Component warranty details will be provided to the purchaser on request. Tire warranties shall be made directly from the tire manufacturer to the purchaser and are expressly excluded from the Ox Trailers warranty. Tarps and related components are limited to a 90-day warranty, unless a longer period is both offered and assignable by the manufacturer of the tarp. Bed liners and the installation of such liners are expressly excluded from this warranty.

This warranty does not cover normal and ordinary wear, tear and deterioration of the equipment. Maintenance items such as light bulbs, brake linings, oil seals, and paint are also excluded. Alterations of the trailer by someone other than an Ox Trailer service facility can also render the warranty invalid. Invoices must indicate the warranty repair authorization number or reference number issued by Ox Trailers in order to be recognized. Invoices received without this identification will not be paid.

Ox Trailers reserves the right to deny any claim which does not meet any or all of the above requirements.

If the trailer body or accessory was purchased through a service representative, please contact the service representative and they will coordinate with Ox Trailers if the defect is warrantable. Other users may contact the Warranty Administrator directly using the information above. Ox Trailers will make the following allowances to authorized service representatives.

Note: Service representatives may be a dealer, distributor, or an authorized repair shop.*

1. In an effort to reduce service representative's freight costs, Ox Trailers may choose to have the defective part scrapped at the Service Representative location. In such cases, the service representative may be required by the Warranty Administrator to provide photographs of the part(s) in question along with the submission of the warranty claim. In cases where the part has an identification/serial number tag of its own (in addition to the Ox Trailers serial number on the trailer body itself), that information must also be included with the warranty claim. The part(s) must be retained by the service representative until such time as the warranty claim has been finalized.
2. Ox Trailers will provide a Warranty Repair Authorization (WRA) number when the Warranty Administrator determines an issue meets the conditions of a warrantable failure. Any returned material must be clearly labeled with this number on the shipping label and packing slip. Parts received without this identification number will not be credited.
3. Parts to be warranted must be received within fourteen (14) days of shipment of replacement part. Parts not received within this time period will not be credited, and the service representative will be charged for the replacement component unless prior arrangements have been made with the Warranty Administrator for consideration of extenuating circumstances.

4. Components of Ox Trailers manufacture which are returned and determined upon our inspection to be defective in materials and/or workmanship will be credited and/or repaired/replaced at no charge. Freight charges are to be submitted on the claim form. Please note; additional charges will not be paid for expedited shipments of replacement parts.
5. All Freight collect shipments of returned materials will be refused.
6. Vendor made components must be returned for warranty consideration either to the component manufacturer, or to Ox Trailers Warranty Administrator in Tishomingo, Mississippi. Ox Trailers Warranty Administrator will determine the ship-to location. Prior to returning these components, shipping arrangements must be made by contacting the Warranty Administrator for a WRA number.
7. Repairs are to be performed solely with parts manufactured, rebuilt, or supplied by Ox Trailers, exclusively by authorized repair shops. Warranty will not be allowed when other manufacturer's replacement parts are used, or when performed by other than an Ox Trailers approved repair shop unless authorized by Ox Trailers Warranty prior to beginning repairs. (see # 8 for details on conditions for prior approval) Ox Trailers repair and/or replacement parts will be covered by Ox Trailers standard written warranty for a period of two (2) years.
8. Service representatives may arrange with Ox Trailers Warranty Administrator to perform the repair(s) themselves. In these cases, Ox Trailers will credit the service representative for the cost of labor incurred in replacing defective components based on the hours listed in the Warranty Flat Rate Schedule in this document. No additional time will be allowed unless a full explanation is furnished as to possible extenuating circumstances and prior approval has been obtained. Standard hours are based on performance of properly equipped and adequately trained mechanics. No credit will be allowed for labor hours spent in inspection of equipment or diagnosis of equipment problems, as this is a function generally performed by supervisory personnel rather than direct labor.
9. In cases where there is no authorized repair shop or service representative at hand to perform repairs, Ox Trailers Warranty will arrange either to transport the unit to the nearest authorized service representative or Ox Trailers facility; whichever is most convenient. Owners may choose to have repairs performed elsewhere, however reimbursement of labor charges will be according to the Flat Rate Schedule, and the repair may not be covered by the warranty.
10. Warranty consideration for repairs submitted by the service representative will be allowed according to the flat rate schedule only. Any difference in charges invoiced will be the responsibility of the service representative.
11. No credit for labor hours/parts will be issued for replacement of components that our inspection subsequently shows not to be defective.
12. No allowance will be made for travel time spent by the service representative to perform repairs.
13. No allowance will be made for towing charges.
14. Claims will be allowed for replacement of hydraulic fluid only in cases where failure of a component clearly indicated loss of a major portion of the fluid in the system. The allowance shall not exceed the current average price per gallon.
15. Ox Trailers will investigate all claims submitted within the warranty period for the unit in question. If the claim is authorized, a WRA number will be issued. If the claim is rejected, a letter indicating the reason will be returned to the service representative.
